

Want to be a part of our smart, brave and passionate team?

POSITION: Fundraising & Partnership Intern
WHERE: Reach for Change Stockholm, Sweden
COMMITMENT: Full time
DURATION: August/September 2019- January 2020
DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS:ASAP
(applications will be reviewed continuously, please submit application as soon as possible

Who we are

Reach for Change is a quickly growing global non-profit organization founded by the Kinnevik Group and Sara Damber in 2010. We find and help passionate social entrepreneurs develop innovative solutions that make the world better for children. In 2017 we supported more than 190 social entrepreneurs who in turn helped hundred of thousands of children across 18 countries.

Who you are

We believe you have a positive, entrepreneurial and problem-solving attitude-you'll be eager to seek out and follow up on new opportunities, and constantly looking for ways to innovate and improve. You have a business mindset in addition to a strong passion for social entrepreneurship. As a person, you are thorough, detail-oriented, keen on research and demonstrate good writing and communication skills. You don't hesitate to take the initiative in being proactive, as well as like having many different projects to juggle at the same time. We hope you have an interest in fundraising and want to gain experience within an international non-profit organization.

What we can offer

This is a varied role and the tasks will include drafting and proofreading proposals and reports, doing donor related research, supporting in the coordination of the global fundraising activities, working with different events and activities involving our corporate partners and assisting the global Partnerships and Fundraising managers with different tasks. You will also have the opportunities to attend conferences and networking events to seek potential partners and advance your own learning and personal network. We highly value our interns at Reach for Change for their skills and energy they bring to our team. For the right person we can offer a great opportunity to develop your workplace skills and be part of a highly talented global team of brave, smart and passionate change makers.

We hope you...

- Are a student or graduate of economy; communication; entrepreneurship; political science; or other social science majors. Either at Bachelor's or Master's level.
- Have good proficiency in English – the language we use for most of our communication.
- Have experience in fundraising, business/project management, strategic communication and institutional funding would be an advantage.
- Have prior working experience (internship) at a non-profit organization or a institution is a plus.
- Are looking for an internship as a part of your education plan. This is an unpaid position, however it's very important to us that you are receiving funds from a third party (CSN or other source of income).

How to apply

If you are who we're looking for, send an email with your CV and details of your external financial support ( e.g. University funding) in English as PDFs to
